

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Tuesday, February 5 - Friday, February 15:
5.30 - 11pm

Present in the Vault, making work, which will be hung as completed.

Saturday, February 16:
8pm

All work on the walls goes on sale for £20 per piece (regardless of size, medium or quality).

Price negotiation will not be tolerated.

Work must be taken down when purchased.

First come, first served.

Everything must go!

S. Astrid Bin is a performance and media artist. She was born in Canada.

Past endeavours have included taping herself naked to a floor, being kissed by hundreds of strangers, making a picture of a pigeon out of 538 pieces of toast, shaving her head, unbaiting mousetraps with her bare hands and attempting to make a million dollars in a year. She has received death threats, hate mail and international press.

She lives in South London.

For more information, please visit:
www.disastrid.net

Please cut out and enjoy this complimentary motivational poster.

DO YOUR WORK

A performance event from February 5 - 16, 2008
by S. Astrid Bin

In The Foundry Vault